Instructions to Authors

Submit articles to the following address

Authors must submit 1 full soft copy of all element of the manuscript to email hsji.indonesia@gmail.com

Basic requirements for articles submitted:

- Original work
- Has never been published previously
- All papers involving human subjects submitted should have obtained approval from the Committee of Ethics.
- Written in the format of 2010 "Uniform Requirements for Manuscript Submitted to Biomedical Journal" established by the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE-"Vancouver style").
- The Editorial Board reserves the right edit to all articles in aspects of style, format, and clarity. Authors may be required to revise their manuscripts for reasons of style and content. Manuscripts with inappropriate format or excessive errors in style and typography may be returned to authors for retyping.
- Subjected to peer and editorial review

Types of articles

Full length basic medical, clinical, and community research are not longer than 12 printed pages (approximately 15 type-written single spaced Letter or A4 size sheets)

Following acceptance

The publisher reserves copyright of all published materials

- Materials may not be reproduced in any form without permission from the publisher
- Statements in articles are the responsibility of the authors.

Structure

Language Articles will be published in US English. Articles that are not suitable for HSJI publication may be rejected. Articles must be submitted fully in the following structural order: (1) Title page: title, authorship, corresponding address, synopsis, running title; (2) Structure abstract, keywords; (3) Text; (4) Acknowledgments; (5) References; (6). Tables; (7) Figures and Legends (if any).

Title page and authorship

The title page should contain:

- Title of the article (no abbreviations, maximum of 12 words)
 - Full names of authors, without academic title
- Authorship of articles should be limited to those who (a) conception and design, or analysis and interpretation of data; (b) Drafting the article or revising it critically for important intellectual content; and on final approval of the version to be published.
- Author's affiliation (name(s) of department(s) and institution (-s))
 - Mailing, email address, nad phone of the corresponding author
 - Source (-s) of grants, if any
 - Synopsis. A synopsis should only be one or two sentences long, maximum 25 words describing the paper or its conclusion
 - A short running title, maximum 40 characters (letter and spaces)

Structured abstract and keywords

- Prepared in English and in Bahasa Indonesia (for Indonesian authors)
- Maximum 250 words.
- Contains: background and objective (-s) of study, methods (study subject selection, time of observational, and analytical methods), results, and conclusion
- Keywords are 3-8 words

Text

The text should be under appropriate headings, structured as Introduction,

Methods, Results, Discussion and Conclusion. Footnotes are not advisable; their contents should rather be incorporated into the text. For measurements use S.I. units (System International units)

- Measurements should be abbreviated (e.g. mm, kcal, etc.) in accordance to the Style Manual for Biological Sciences and using the metric system
- Do not use abbreviations such as APH; instead write in full: ante partum hemorrhage.
- Do not begin sentences with a numerical figure. When heading a sentence, numbers should be spelled out.
- Cite in numerical order every reference, figure and table. Use Arabic numerals in superscript to cite references in Vancouver style.

Tables and illustrations

Each table and its title should be presented in its own separate sheet, indicating its position in the text Tables should be numbered in Arabic numerals Captions brief, clearly indicating the purpose or content of each table

- Provide a footnote to each table, identifying in alphabetical order all abbreviations used.
- Illustrations should be made as professional quality drawings or in the form of glossy photographs.
- Indicate the author's name and the figure number written on the bottom each illustration.
- A legend should be supplied for each illustration, with all legends typed on separate sheets of paper.
- Color illustrations are allowed in special circumstances, provided that the author is willing to meet the cost of reproduction.

Statistical methods: Any statistical methods used should be detailed in the methods section of the paper and any method not commonly used should be described in detail and supported by references.

Acknowledgments

Personal acknowledgments will be limited to appropriate professionals who contributed to the paper, including technical assistance and/or financial material support.

References

- References should not exceed 25 and must be numbered in the order in which they are mentioned in the text. Use the "Vancouver style" of 2010 and abbreviated according to the style of Index Medicos.
- Try to avoid using abstracts as references.
- Information from manuscripts submitted but not accepted should be cited in the text as "unpublished observations" with written permission from the source.
- Papers accepted but not yet published may be included as references; designate the journal and add "Forthcoming".
- Avoid citing a "personal communication" unless it provides essential information not available publically, name the person and date of communication, obtain written permission and confirmation of accuracy from the source of a personal communication.

Please send email version as an attachment to hsji.indonesia@gmail.com

Under the terms of Indonesian Government Copyright Law, Health Science Journal of Indonesia must formally obtain transfer of copyright before an article can be published. Health Science Journal of Indonesia grants to the author (and to all coauthors) the right to present orally in any forum all or part of the work. It is also stipulated that all graphics including figures, tables and charts may be republished with permission from Health Science Journal of Indonesia.

In consideration of the fact that Health Science Journal of Indonesia undertakes to publish my article:

1. I affirm that the material has not been previously published and that I (and my coauthors) own and have not transferred elsewhere any rights to the article.
2. I affirm that I (and my coauthors) have obtained written permission to use any previously copyrighted material included in the article and that such documentation will be forwarded to Health Science Journal of Indonesia simultaneously with the article. I further affirm that I (and my coauthors) have stated any possible conflicts of interest within the article.
3. I (and my coauthors) hereby assign and transfer to Health Science Journal of Indonesia all rights of copyright ownership and permission to the article, including without limitation or restriction, all rights of reproduction, derivation, distribution, sale, reuse, and display of the of the work, in whole or in part, including recompilation and stand-alone publication, in any and all forms of media now or hereafter known, including all electronic and digital media, as protected by the laws of the Republic of Indonesia and foreign countries and to authorize others to make such uses of the work. These rights will become the property of Health Science Journal of Indonesia from the date of acceptance of the article for publication and extend for the life of the copyright. I understand that Health Science Journal of Indonesia, as copyright owner, has authority to grant permission to reproduce the article.
